

Like snow and rain

(by Jacopo Fraccaroli – 3M)

Like snow and rain
You have fallen from the sky
So pale is your skin
So beautiful your eyes

You are so tender baby
And so warm are your smiles
You're waiting for me, maybe
I'm far a hundred miles

I want to hug you again
I want to kiss you on your neck
But I can't stand the pain
Because I will never come back

Your smile is so warm
But baby, I died in the war
