

THE SUMMER

Longer days and brighter lights, bigger parties and wilder friends, darker shades and shorter nights,
no need for pencils, no need for pens.

The sun is bright,
the grass so green,
no worries in sight,
life seems a dream.

Everybody have fun,
the guys are fine,
the sky shows the sun,
it is summertime.

This time only comes once a year, so, keep calm, don't have any fears.
