

The Poet's Corner

---

Shall I compare it to the best day of my life?

(by Camilla Zampar – 3M)

Shall I compare it to the best day of my life?

It's a day of Summer, a hot day.

The red fruits were growing up and the animals were playing on the grass.

The weather was so magical,
it was sunny without a cloud and
the sun was like a light,
the light that leads to Paradise.

I was with my friends and they were so wonderful.
We were carried by the wind and by its rustling through the leaves.

It was like a dream,
a dream come true.